Steeley Will Take Troop Command at Troy's Barracks

Promotion to Captain Is Announced; in Charge of Troop G Since September

Lieut. Joseph A. Steeley of Ellenville, who has been in charge of State Police in Ulster and Sullivan counties for the past two and a half years, will become captain in command of Troop G, State Police, Troy, on January 1. Since September 10, Lieut. Steeley has been acting commander at Troy, having been transferred from C. Troop at that time to fill the post of commander of Troop G which had been vacant since December 1, 1947, when Capt. Walter F. Kelly retired.

The promotion of Lieut. Steeley to captain in command of Troop G, was announced Tuesday by Superintendent John A. Gaffney, Inspector Martin E. Dillon of the chief inspector's staff in the Capital at Albany, was acting captain of Troop G prior to Steeley's appointment.

Troop G's new captain came up through the ranks after his enlistment in Troop D, Oneida, on December 13, 1925. He was promoted to corporal July 1, 1930, sergeant July 1, 1935, and first lieutenant July 1, 1940. His promotion to lieutenant came on January 1, 1945, and he was then transferred to Troop C at Sidney and was put in charge of state police in the Ulster-Sullivan counties area.

During the two and a half years in this area he has played a leading part in many investigations. His investigation of explosives being transported by tractor trailer for apparent shipment to Palestine attracted national wide attention after three vehicles were intercepted near Saugerties last January. The vehicles were transporting tons of high explosives which allegedly were destined for shipment to Palestine by way of Egypt.

Recently he took an active part in the investigation of the Kitzel murder at Hudson where he and Inspector Charles A. LaForge, State Police B.C.I. member, were directing operations during the investigation.

Lieut. Steeley is married and has four children.

County Sends Out Sanding Trucks
Glare of Ice Reported on Most Highways in Region

The Ulster County Highway Department sent out sanding trucks at 7 o'clock this morning to begin sanding operations on practically all of the county highways when a sleet storm, followed by freezing rain covered the roads with a glare of ice. At the County garage it was reported the storm was general throughout the county but by late morning the ice was beginning to break up under travel and conditions were improved.

Highland State Police reported shortly before noon improved highway conditions. No serious accidents were reported to either the State Police or Sheriff George C. Smith, although many cars early in the morning skidded off highways and into ditches and fences.

A truck met difficulty on the Washington avenue viaduct early today, and for a time traffic was tied up. On Route 32 near Perryville's bridge, a tractor trailer jack-knifed and traffic was tied up for some time until highway employees arrived and sanded the area permitting the truck to get back on the road and proceed.

From Lake Katrine barracks, Troopers reported roads slippery but no accidents of a serious nature during the early morning hours.

City sanding equipment was out during the morning sanding hills and intersections. No serious accidents were reported to the city police.

Myrick Will Retire

New York, Dec. 29 (AP)—Julian S. Myrick, second vice-president of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York, will retire April 1, after more than 50 years in the life insurance field, it was announced today. Myrick, who will be 69 March 1, is a member of the executive committee of the U. S. Lawn Tennis Association. He is honorary president of the New York State Life Underwriters Association and board chairman of the American College of Life Underwriters. He began his insurance career as a clerk in a mutual agency in New York in 1898.

Was Thawing Pipe

Firemen were called at 8:57 a. m. today to 246 Catherine street, a house owned by the Rev. Walter Washington and occupied by Joseph Washington and Robert Bailey. A fire scare resulted, firemen said, when Bailey used burning rags to thaw out a frozen water pipe in the cellar.

U. S. Will Give Billions in Arms Next Year To Anti-Communist Allies in West Europe

Washington, Dec. 29 (AP)—The United States seems likely to give its anti-Communist allies in Western Europe between $2,000,000,000 and $3,000,000,000 worth of arms next year.

But much of what the Europeans need in the way of military equipment is already available in army, navy and air force storehouses. It can be shipped abroad at a fraction of its original cost.

President Truman therefore is expected to ask Congress to appropriate only about $1,000,000,000 for the European rearmament program during the new fiscal year beginning next July 1.

This amount would cover packing, shipping and other similar costs, as well as any new items that might have to be bought.

Details are far from complete, but top officials say they feel confident Congress will approve the program as a major move in the cold war.

It will nevertheless pose one of the great foreign policy issues of the new session.

Three other items dealing with American military outlays abroad also will focus attention on the question of what this country wants in the world and how it proposes to get it. These three are:

1. The Berlin airlift. The cost of supplying Soviet-blockaded Berlin by air is going to run the air force between $70,000,000 and $80,000,000 into the red for this fiscal year. By asking Congress to vote this much more money before June 30, Mr. Truman at the same time will be asking the lawmakers to do this: Stamp their formal okay on American determination to stick in Berlin in the face of terrific Russian pressure to get us out.

2. Greek-Turkish aid. President Truman is due to decide soon the size of the next Greek-Turkish aid program. His advisers reportedly are prepared to recommend an increase of around 10 per cent above this year's $325,000,000 program. The Greek-Turkish program is the key to American strategy in the Middle East. Politically it is the heart of the Truman Doctrine of helping free nations to defend

Chiang Call Summons Top Brass

Conference to Be Held and on Decisions May Hang Future of Sino Government

Fight May Go On

Chiang Might Continue War, Move His HQ to Formosa

Nanking, Dec. 29 (AP)—From all corners of China today came Nationalist military leaders to talk war or peace with Chiang Kai-shek.

The aging president, urged by many to quit, called the conference. It probably will start tomorrow. On its decision may rest the future of Nationalist China, based on the north by conquering Communists.

Even as the warlords, generals and leaders arrived in Nanking, a government source revealed that a Red underground organization was hard at work only two miles from the capital.

A hint that Chiang, or his Nationalist leaders under a new chief, would carry on the fight came late in the day. Gen. Chen Cheng, former army chief of staff, was appointed governor of Formosa by the Executive Yuan (Council).

His appointment, plus the fact the navy and air force have moved some of their headquarters units to the big island off the coast half way between Shanghai and Canton, might presage flight of Chiang's government, there if Nanking is attacked.

North of the Yangtze it appeared almost all over for Chiang's men. A few pockets held out, notably in Peiping and Tientsin, but Gen. Du Liang's Red-surrendered force 50 miles south of Suchow. None seemed to have any chance of getting out.

Best available sources here said those attending the policy making conference would include:

Gen. Fu Tso-yi, whose military reputation faded fast when his armies were trapped in Tientsin and Peiping; Fu was not on the original list of army commanders invited to the conference but he was reported en route by plane from Peiping.

Pai Chung-hsi, former defense minister whose Hankow area

Rescue Pilot

Beaudry Is Hero Of Icecap Rescue; Details Unknown

Communications to North End Shortly After Men Are Taken to Base

Washington, Dec. 29 (AP)—The Air Force proudly counted among its achievements today the daring rescue of 12 marooned airmen from a bleak 7,800-foot Greenland icecap.

The hero of the new northland saga is 32-year-old Lt. Col. Emil J. Beaudry of Manchester, N. H. He landed his specially equipped C-47 transport on the wind-swept cap yesterday and, in 38 minutes, was airborne again with a dozen jubilant passengers.

Long hours later however only the scotchiest details of the dramatic operation were known here.

But before communications to the frozen northland failed, word came through that the rescued men were safe and apparently sound at Blue West Eight—an Air Force base in southwest Greenland.

Seven of the men had been stranded since December 9, when their own C-47 was forced down. Three previous rescue attempts resulted only in adding five more men to the encampment.

But at 9:30 a. m. Eastern Standard Time, yesterday, Col. Beaudry skillfully set his ship, down on the cap. Thirty-eight minutes later the ski-landed transport, assisted by jet takeoffs, roared into the air and sped back to its base 270 miles away.

News of the feat was cheered aboard the U.S.S. Saipan carrying a Navy helicopter rescue team to the area. The 14,500-ton carrier, which left Norfolk, Va., Christmas Day, had not expected to launch its five "flying windmills" on the rescue mission before Thursday noon.

Navy officials said the Saipan will put into Port Atargentina, Newfoundland, before making the return trip to Norfolk.

The rescue also came before the Air Force's top Arctic expert, Col. Bernat Balchen, had a chance to try his hand at the job. Balchen flew a glider-equipped C-54 from Lead Field, Fairbanks, Alaska, to Greenland for the task.

While all these preparations were in progress, air-drops kept the men well supplied with food, medical supplies, heating and communications equipment, a plywood house and even a Christmas tree and a Xmas dinner.

Yesterday's rescue was the second major northland exploit for Beaudry, who won the air medal and distinguished flying cross in World War 2 as a bomber pilot over Europe.

On Dec. 26, 1947, Beaudry piloted a plane to Dyke's Lake in Labrador and picked up nine survivors—seven air force men and two civilians—whose B-17 had been forced down in that barren land three days earlier.

May Cost Half Million

Washington, Dec. 29 (AP)—The government may be out close to half a million dollars for the whole series of events that led up to yesterday's dramatic rescue of 12 air force men from a Greenland ice cap.

In addition to the original crash of the $100,000 C-47, which put the first seven men on the icy plateau, three futile rescue attempts cost the air force one B-17 and two gliders. The service also had at least 14 aircraft engaged in rescue operations, including one flown across the top of the continent from Alaska to Greenland.

The navy ordered the 14,500-ton carrier, Saipan, from Norfolk, Va., to Greenland to try to rescue the men with helicopters. The Saipan had traveled 1,360 miles

Democratic Aldermen Call Special Meeting

Would Raise Salary Issue of Workers Under Common Council

Five Democratic aldermen have called a special meeting of the Common Council to precede the scheduled budget hearing tonight to raise the question of proposed salary increases for employees under jurisdiction of the Common Council.

City Clerk Bernhardt S. Kramer said he did not receive notice of the meeting until shortly after 11 a. m. today.

Aldermen who received the notice said that the meeting is "for the purpose of receiving and acting on the report of the Finance Ways and Means Committee with respect to granting salary increases to city employees under jurisdiction of the Common Council."

A resolution sponsored by Democratic Aldermen John Bublitz and Thomas Coughlin at the meeting Dec. 7 proposed the pay increases and was referred to the Finance Ways and Means Committee.

A resolution sponsored by Democratic Aldermen John Bublitz and Thomas Coughlin at the meeting Dec. 7 proposed the pay increases and was referred to the Finance Ways and Means Committee.

Republican Alderman Joseph Bruck is chairman of the committee and the other members are Aldermen Bublitz (D) and Alderman Paul J. Schatzel (R).

A new maximum scale has been set up in the mayor's 1949 budget providing for increases for all city employees including those under jurisdiction of the Common Council and those of the Board of Public Works.

The meeting tonight is apparently intended only to draw a report from the Finance Ways and Means Committee on the resolution of Dec. 7.

Under provisions of the city charter any five members of the Common Council are empowered to call a special meeting.

From January 3 to 15 taxpayers may receive assistance at the Elleville zone office on Canal street. On January 4 a deputy will be at the Huguenot National Bank, New Paltz; January 5, at the post office building in Saugerties; January 6, at the National Bank of Marlborough; January 7, at Wallkill National Bank. New Premier Assumes Post In Egypt, Asks All Unite Cairo, Egypt, Dec. 29 (AP)—A new premier took over today the reins of government dropped by the assassinated Mahmoud Fahmy Nokrashy Pasha. He urged Egyptian unity for the struggle in Palestine.

The new premier is Ibrahim Abdel Hadi Pasha, who was chief of the royal cabinet. He is expected to carry out Egypt's policy toward Israel much as Nokrashy Pasha would have done.

The cabinet was reconstituted. Hadi Pasha is a middle aged lawyer who has held both parliamentary and ministerial positions. He was sentenced to death as a youth for his revolutionary political beliefs, but was released under a political amnesty in 1924.

He helped Nokrashy Pasha form the Saadist Party, now dominant in the Chamber of Deputies, after a split of the Wardist Party in 1937.

King Farouk made the appointment.

Dutch Say They'll Stop Their War

Israelis, Egyptians Told to End Hostilities in Palestine

Paris, Dec. 29 (AP)—The United Nations ordered Israeli troops today to retire from the Negev desert of southern Palestine. The Security Council also ordered both Israel and Egypt to end hostilities there.

The council adopted a British-sponsored resolution by eight votes with three abstentions. No negative ballot was cast.

The United States abstained on all sections of the resolution as it was put to vote by paragraphs. Russia and the Soviet Ukraine abstained from all sections except the preamble and the order to cease fire.

Delegates also waited their own 6 p. m. (noon, E.S.T.) deadline for Holland to liberate Indonesian leaders captured by Dutch forces. The council last night gave the Dutch 24 hours to free the Republicans.

American spokesmen said late last night that U. S. Delegate Philip C. Jessup still had not received instructions from Washington on how to vote on the British resolution on Palestine.

In counting noses, observers guessed that Britain already had the seven votes needed for passage of the resolution.

It would be possible for the United States to kill the resolution with a veto, a power it possesses in common with Russia, Britain, France and China. The United States, however, has never used the veto.

Russia's Jakob Malik already was on record as favoring the proposal. China, Canada, Belgium, Syria and the Ukraine also were reported to favor the resolution. Colombia was considered another possibility.

The British resolution also calls for a meeting of the council's seven-power truce supervision committee at Lake Success, N. Y., January 6. It calls for prompt formation of the general assembly's three-power conciliation commission—France, Turkey and the U. S.—which is supposed to work out a permanent Holy Land settlement.

The council's deadline for the Dutch to release Indonesian President Soekarno, Premier Mohamed Hatta and other leaders was contained in a resolution proposed by China.

The proposal was adopted after the Dutch, for the second consecutive day, failed to give the council any assurance that the cease fire ordered December 24 had been or would be obeyed. The release of the Indonesians also was ordered originally at the same time.

The Dutch inner cabinet met today at the Hague where there was speculation the government would announce the end of military operations on Friday. A government spokesman would not comment on the rumor.

Will Order Cessation

Paris, Dec. 29 (AP)—The Netherlands told the United Nations Security Council today the Dutch will order an end of hostilities in Indonesia at midnight Friday.

The Dutch representative, Jan Herman Van Royen, also announced that The Netherlands soon will release President Soekarno of the Indonesian republic and members of his cabinet who were captured at the outset of Dutch operations.

The release will be the persons concerned will refrain from activities endangering public security," he told the council.

The statement came within an hour of the end of a 24-hour deadline served by the council on Holland yesterday for the liberation of the Indonesian Republican leaders.

The council's deadline for the release of the leaders was adopted yesterday in a resolution proposed by China.

The council ordered a cease fire Christmas Eve, but the Dutch had failed up to today to give any assurance that the order would be obeyed.

Advertising Total Forecast Is High

First Three Months of '49 May Exceed Similar Period in 1948

New York, Dec. 29 (AP)—The dollar volume of national advertising in the first three months of 1949 may exceed the outlay during the like period of 1948, Printers Ink said today.

The publication said advertisers, feeling that business generally will shade off in 1949, believe "the time has come for some good old-fashioned advertising and selling."

Basing its report on replies to a survey from 69 national advertisers, Printers Ink said many advertisers plan media shifts to bring their programs into line with changed conditions.

Some advertisers will increase newspaper and selective radio expenditures, Printers Ink said. Other are going strongly into television, occasionally at the expense of other media.

Heaviest budget increases are planned by food, drug, liquor and tobacco advertisers, the weekly said.

Commenting on the business outlook, Printers Ink said "a mild business decline for the first three months of 1949 seems assured, but chances of its being anything more than adjustment from peak to plateau levels are pretty remote."

Mrs. Tyler Is First Woman to Get Fishing License

Mrs. Lillian Tyler of 1 Murphy street, Kingston, becomes the first woman in Ulster county to be issued a fishing license under the new law which requires that after January first "fishermen" as well as fishermen possess a license to fish. County Clerk Robert A. Snyder issued to Mrs. Tyler the first 1949 fishing license.

Not only will women be required to have a fishing license after January first but the license fee for all fishermen has been increased from $1.65 to $2.25.

Under a new provision of the Conservation law which becomes effective January 1, all persons over the age of 16, either male or female, will be required to have a license to fish. In previous years women were not required to have a license to fish but were required to have a hunting license.

Free for Those 70
However there is some consolation. If you are over 70 years of age and supply necessary proof of age, then you will be granted a free fishing license, whether woman or man.

Prior to January 1, 1949, it cost a man or boy over 16 years of age $1.65 for a fishing license or $1.65 for a hunting license and $2.25 for a combination fishing and hunting license. Women fish "for free" license. Women fish "for free" license. Women fish "for free" license.

After January 1, 1949 the fishing or hunting license will cost $2.25 each and the combination hunting and fishing license $3.75.

The so called "deer" license which in the past entitled a person to hunt deer has also been abandoned and in its place is a "big game" license which will cost $2 and will entitle the person to hunt deer or bear. Previous to enactment of the new law for 1949 bear could be hunted on a regular hunting license, the special license being required only to hunt deer.

Not Considered
Enactment of the new law, effective January 1, 1949, apparently was not taken into consideration when the 1949 hunting license forms were printed for the 1949 hunting season.

The hunting license forms state that the hunting license is good for hunting all game "except deer" while the law provides that bear cannot be hunted without the "big game" license.

Trapping license will cost $2.25 for residents. The special archery license for deer and bear will cost $5.25 as in the past year.

Non-resident and alien hunting licenses will cost $10.75, fishing licenses $5.50 and the combined hunting and fishing license for non-residents or aliens $15.50. A three day non-resident license can be secured for $2.75. Big game license for non-resident $10.50 and trapping license $25. The non-resident or alien fees are charged for all non-residents of the state, citizen residents of less than six months and unaturalized foreign born residents.

2 Planeloads of Brides Fail to Make Deadline

New York, Dec. 29 (AP)—It was a close race for the war brides. Some of them made it on time. At least two planeloads of them didn't.

The finish line for many of them was at New York airports. And the deadline was at midnight last night.

That was when the period for the admission of war brides under the Alien War Brides Act expired.

Several got in just under the wire, but two trans-oceanic airline planes, both carrying war brides, were delayed and aren't expected to arrive until today.

Just what will be done about the late arrivals is to be decided by the U. S. Immigration Office.

One alien bridegroom, Gabor Rona, 29, had to leave his California wife, a former Wac, behind in London in order to get here before his special visa expired.

Among the war brides who arrived at La Guardia Field aboard an American overseas airlines plane a few hours before the deadline was Mrs. Matissa Marine, 23, from Italy, bound for (3509 44th street) Astoria, Queens, N. Y.

Four Persons Lose Lives in Morning Hotel Fire

Twisp, Wash., Dec. 29 (AP)—An early morning fire yesterday razed the Campbell Hotel, killing at least four persons.

Firemen and law-enforcement officers could see four bodies in the wreckage last night, but intense heat still thwarted attempts at recovery. Claude Watkins, publisher of the Mohave Valley News, said it was possible there were two other bodies in the ashes.

He said it was believed Tom Campbell, 65, owner of the hotel, was one victim. One of the others was thought to be Stanley Parkinson, about 55, who was seen in the hotel lobby the night before the fire. Nine persons, one of them a woman, escaped. The bodies were to be removed today. Hotel records were lost and there was no means of determining how many people were in the hotel when the unexplained fire broke out.

Palestine Quiet

Tel Aviv, Israel, Dec. 29 (AP)—Reports from Israeli and United Nations sources indicated today that the second battle of the Negev had come to a tentative halt. A U. N. spokesman at Haifa said reports from observers in the southern Palestine desert said "all quiet." An Israeli military spokesman said earlier the battle was "slackening."

Ex-Bomber Crewman Now Preaches Gospel

Tokyo, Dec. 29 (AP)—The Rev. Jacob Deshazer, who once bombed Tokyo, will preach his first sermon here Sunday.

One of the Doolittle fliers who gave the Japanese their first taste of an air raid, Deshazer was captured in China after the historic mission. A sympathetic Japanese guard gave him a Bible.

"I read it and the Lord showed me the way to become a Christian. I did not know before. I decided to love my fellow man and to return good for evil. All hatred was taken from me."

On Sunday, the likeable young missionary will preach in a small, but new and neat church in Sugimami ward of Tokyo. It was completed only last week by the Japanese flock of the Free Methodist Missionary Board of Winona Lake, Ind.

To Switzerland

London, Dec. 29 (AP)—Prince Aly Khan, heir to a fabulous Oriental fortune, slipped off to the continent today with red-haired movie actress Rita Hayworth in the prince's private plane. "I am in too much of a hurry to say anything about our plans but I will say that we are going to Switzerland," the prince told reporters. Yesterday they made an unintended stop in London when the Paris Airport, for which they were reported bound, was closed in by fog.

Will Parole Naxon

Boston, Dec. 29 (AP)—Immediate parole was made possible today for John F. Naxon, murderer of his infant son, by a 6 to 3 vote of the Massachusetts Executive Council. Final word rests with the State Parole Board. The parole board already has voiced privately 2 to 1 approval of freeing the wealthy 52-year-old Pittsfield corporation lawyer, who escaped death in the electric chair two years ago through executive clemency. His sentence at that time was commuted to life. Naxon is expected to be released from Norfolk prison colony January 4.

Two Are Killed

New York, Dec. 29 (AP)—A man and a woman were shot to death today in the hallway of a West 52nd street tenement house. A rifle lay near the bodies. Police said they believed the man killed the woman and then shot himself. The woman was identified as Christiana Papageorge, 35, a Greek nurse. Police said the man was Achilles Pappas, 55, who lived on an upper floor of the building. Police said the shooting occurred during a renewal of pleas by Pappas that the nurse go out with him.

Citation Operated Upon

Miami, Fla., Dec. 29 (AP)—Calumet, a wonder horse, Citation, was "fired" today for popped osslet on his left foreleg. The minor operation, which required an hour, was performed at Hialeah race course by Dr. A. H. Davidson of Lexington, Ky., who described it as "just a routine operation." Dr. Davidson said the affected area on the inside of the left foreleg covered an area about an inch square. It would have gone into a bony growth if it had not been treated, he said.

Barkley Says Reds Won't Take Over

Paris, Dec. 29 (AP)—Vice President-elect Alben W. Barkley ended an eight-day tour of Europe today with the observation that he didn't think Communists were going to take the place over during 1949.

Crops are better, he said, living standards are rising, and the Marshall Plan is working. These things, he said, contributed to economic stability. Economic stability brought political stability. "The more stable a government is politically and economically," Barkley said, "the better able it is to stop the encroachment of Communism—or roll it back."

Senator Barkley made his comments in a news conference in the library of the American Embassy.

Trial Is Postponed

Baltimore, Dec. 29 (AP)—Trial of the $75,000 libel suit of Alger Hiss against Whittaker Chambers, central figures in a Communist spy probe, was postponed indefinitely today.

New York, Dec. 29 (AP)—Sheffield Farms today announced a one-cent a quart reduction in its New Jersey retail milk prices and other reductions in retail cream prices effective January 1. The company's action followed Gov. Driscoll's order yesterday ending retail milk price fixing in the state. F. J. Andre, president of Sheffield Farms, said "we are able to do this because of a reduction in the overall cost of milk which we purchase from farmers."

Dewey Endorses 25-Point Plan of Farm Organizations

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 29 (AP)—A 25-point legislative program of the state conference of farm organizations carried the endorsement of Governor Dewey today.

The program proposes among other things, a medical center in central New York, revisions of the methods of payments to farmers for milk, a full state fair in 1949 and more state aid in the school lunch program.

The board, representing eight major farm organizations, submitted its program to the governor yesterday.

Dewey told newsmen after a two and a half hour conference with 20 farm leaders that he hoped their program "could be carried out. * * * I have the highest regard for their recommendations."

The farm board's proposal on milk payments called for amending the state's price-fixing law "to the end that payments to dairy-men may be so adjusted during the various seasons of the year so that greater incentive to produce milk during the fall and winter months may help to better meet the needs of consumers."

By this, Dewey said, farmers want part of the payments to milk producers withheld during the "lull season" and paid out during low production periods.

The conference board's program called for these specific appropriations: $32,000 to the College of Agriculture and $18,000 to the State Veterinary College, both at Cornell University, for research in prevention of sterility in cattle.

$15,000 for research in rural engineering to promote mechanization of farms.

$14,000 for research on the making of grass silage.

$25,000 to the Long Island Vegetable Research Farm at Riverhead and answers to many new problems common to Long Island agriculture.

The board's program also urged continuation of research program for control of the golden nematode infestation of Long Island potato fields and continued payments to owners of such lands taken out of production.

Organizations which make up the board are the State Grange, Federation of Home Bureaus, Horticultural Society, Vegetable Growers Association, Dairyman's League, Cooperative Association, Farm Bureau Federation, the Cooperative Grange League Federation Exchange and the Poultry Council.

N.G. Bomber Crashes

Detroit, Dec. 29 (AP)—A Michigan National Guard B-25 bomber plane, fighting rain and sleet, crashed and burned six miles from its base last night. Four men, including three air force personnel and a guard officer, were killed. Cause of the crash was unknown but there was belief that ice might have formed on the plane's wings.

U. S. Will Give

themselves against Russian-Communist pressure. Militarily it is the extra strength American strategists feel is needed to keep Greece and Turkey as a bulwark against a Communist invasion of the Middle East and the southern flank of Europe.

The Chinese program—if any. The administration has $400,000,000 to spend on military and civilian aid to China this year. Despite the pleas of Mme. Chiang Kai-shek, it is uncertain whether there will be any real aid program next year. In fact, because of Generalissimo Chiang's long string of defeats at the hands of the Communists, the United States earlier this month suspended a planned outlay of $70,000,000 for reconstruction. That reduced help to stricken China to straight relief and $125,000,000 worth of military assistance.

These three programs taken together illustrate the basic principles which the United States has developed during the cold war years in trying first to block, then to reverse the tide of Communism.

In the first place there is Secretary of State Marshall's idea of limitation: American foreign policy as expressed in terms of dollar-power, and military-economic resources cannot be equally strong in every threatened part of the world. It must be strongest where the threat to American security is greatest.

This leads to the second point that in a time of conflict with another major power, the great weight of American policy must be on the side of security. And when security is the primary objective, idealism must be secondary. For example, it is considered more important to improve the industrial output of western Germany than to try to industrialize Latin America or India at this time.

That explains why the administration is fairly calm about the threat of an all-Communist China. Similar Communist successes in western Europe would throw this government into a war-like crisis.

A third and fundamental principle is that the cold war is not a fight between the United States and Russia alone; it is a struggle between the Communist world and the western Democratic world. A majority of the countries in the United Nations now consistently line up on the western side. The problem is to build up their economic and military power to match their theoretical political strength so that their force in the world will create a definite and real balance against Russia.

Still another factor is the State Department's conviction that the United States cannot save other countries but can only help them save themselves.

The feeling about the Chinese under Chiang is that they have proved incapable of saving themselves. If Chiang were able to pull off a military miracle against his Communist foes, he might suddenly find the doors of the American arsenal opening to him again. If he cannot produce that miracle American aid to China next year—or to the part of it which remains non-Communist—is likely to be only a trickle.

Hodges to Retire

New York, Dec. 29 (AP)—An army spokesman said today that Gen. Courtney Hodges planned to retire from the army in January. The spokesman said Hodges would reach his 62nd birthday January 5, and that under the Armed Forces Personnel Act of 1947, he would be required to retire before the last day of the month. Hodges, who served in both world wars, has been commanding general of the First U. S. Army with headquarters at Governors Island, N. Y., since July, 1946.

Lions and Guests Enjoy Puppet Show

A marionette show based on a Christmas theme was enjoyed by members of the Kingston Lions Club and 45 youngsters who were their guests at a party held at the Governor Clinton Hotel Tuesday noon.

The show, presented by Janet and Ronald Herrick assisted by Mrs. Emily Ackerman, all of this city, included such difficult numbers as a tap dance and aerial acrobatics. The story was that of Chubby, the young snowman, who was granted his wish to see the kind of toys children play with inside their homes. Chubby, of course, could not go inside a house because he would melt, but the toys were paraded before him by Starry, the dancing clown. After the humorous first acts, the show concluded with an effective shadow scene of the three Wise Men at the first Christmas. The party was given by the Lions Club for their own children. Last week, the club gave a Christmas party for other children of the area.

Objections Are Made

Newark, N. J., Dec. 29 (AP)—An application by the Hudson and Manhattan Railroad for increase in local interstate fares from 10 to 15 cents brought immediate protest from the city of Jersey City. The H. and M. yesterday petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington for the increase. Mayor Frank H. Eggers of Jersey City said he had authorized his city counsel to file objections to the fare rise.

City Roads Delay Roosevelt in Probe Of Wife's Injury

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Dec. 29 (AP)—City roads today delayed the appearance of Elliott Roosevelt to answer questions of authorities about how his actress-wife Faye Emerson slashed her wrist.

Both said yesterday in New York she accidentally struck a razor blade as she reached into a drawer for aspirin.

Dutchess County District Attorney W. Vincent Grady had summoned Elliott Roosevelt to appear here at 10 a. m. today to testify about the episode.

Joseph McCabe, attorney for the late president's son, announced at noon that Elliott had been delayed and that a new time of 2:30 p. m. (E.S.T.) had been set.

McCabe said Elliott left New York by automobile this morning but had to turn back because of sleet and bad roads. He then boarded a train, the attorney said.

Earlier, the Dutchess county sheriff had said he understood the wound, which cut Mrs. Roosevelt in a hospital for 30 hours, was self-inflicted.

The injury occurred early Sunday morning after a Roosevelt family Christmas gathering at the couple's Hyde Park home. Eight stitches were taken to close the wound at Vassar Brothers Hospital in nearby Poughkeepsie.

After questioning three witnesses about the affair, Grady said he was satisfied the doctor who treated Mrs. Roosevelt and the hospital had not violated any law in not reporting the incident.

"It appears," he said, "the case was not reported because the wound was not sufficiently serious to be likely to result in death."

Sheriff C. Fred Closs had quoted the doctor as saying he had been told the cut was self-inflicted, and that the 31-year-old actress had to be restrained from injuring herself further.

Doctors, Dentists, Pharmacists Will Attend Hearing

Representatives of the medical, dental and pharmacy professions will be given a chance to express their views on proposals of the Commission on Coordination of State Activities at a public hearing in the state capital January 4, it was announced by Senator Arthur H. Wicks of Kingston, chairman of the commission.

The commission has been studying proposals to limit the scope of the boards of all the 13 professions licensed by the state. Because of numerous protests received from the professions, the hearing was set to receive comment and suggestions from physicians, dentists and pharmacists. The hearings will begin 10 a. m. and continue until 6 p. m., Senator Wicks said.

The Wicks commission has been studying recommendations for a complete overhauling of the professional licensing system with the aim of establishing uniform standards for all professions. The recommendation favors placing regulatory powers and administration, including hearings for non-professional conduct, under strict supervision of the Education Department.

Senator Wicks today emphasized the fact that the work of the commission is not over, and that its proposals will not be determined until after the hearing. Numerous complaints from the professional groups have already been received, the senator said. "I think this is because they don't understand the proposals," he added.

In addition to hearing the views of these groups, the public hearing will serve to clarify the work of the commission to date. Senator Wicks said. From the number of inquiries and complaints received, a large attendance is expected, he said.

Showdown Ahead For City Carriers

New York, Dec. 29 (AP)—Both land and water carriers that handle New York city fuel supplies were involved today in disputes that are headed for an early showdown.

Contracts for both an A.F.L. Teamsters Union and Tugboat Workers' Union expire at midnight Dec. 31.

While mediators sought to find a basis for settling the tugboat dispute, a deadlock was reported to have arisen yesterday in negotiations involving some 2,500 members of the truckers' Local 553.

Joseph E. O'Grady, deputy director of the city's Labor Relations Division, said he is "fully aware" of the truckers' dispute and is "watching it closely."

The truckers are employed on trucks of some 585 coal and fuel companies. Representatives of some 3,500 employees on harbor tugs and barges—which haul much of the metropolitan area's fuel—meet again today with mediators in efforts to iron out differences with harbor craft owners.

Four contracts—covering tugboat workers, employees on oil tank barges, oil motor tankers and Great Lakes oil tankers—are involved in the negotiations.

The union, the A.F.L. International Longshoremen's Marine Division, has asked a 35 per cent wage increase and other benefits in all four contracts. The operators have offered three per cent boosts.

Present scales for the tugmen range from 96 cents to $1.49 an hour.

In the truckers' dispute, the union is said to be asking a wage increase from the present $11 a day to $16 for drivers, and proportionate boosts for other workers. The employers reportedly have offered an 80-cents-a-day increase.

Busy Byway

If we succeed in getting rocket ships into the upper atmosphere, the pilots will not find the flyways empty. There are millions of meteors plunging into the earth's atmosphere every day, and a collision with one would be fatal to the ship.

Pitching Horseshoes

By Billy Rose

A couple of years back, I wrote a column in which I bemoaned the disappearance from Broadway of the great tinsel and thunder merchants of the past—the Ziegfelds, Belascos, Thompsons and Du-decs, and Morris Gestes. I said that, by some footlight magic, the wonder of their own lives used to spill over on the stage; that their shows didn't succeed or fail—they exploded over the clouds or went down like the Titanic; that the current crop of producers may be smart and competent, but no psychiatrist would give them a second glance; that the Inverness cape and beaver collar of the old days have been replaced by the adding machine, bankers' gray and the worried look.

Re-reading the piece, there's nothing I'd want to change except a split infinitive or two. Sure, there are fine producers in New York—Oscar Hammerstein and Richard Rodgers, for example—but with one exception, none of the present crop has the frenzy and fire which trademarked the inspired Nutty Fagins of the past.

Did I say there was an exception? Yes, I did, and, what's more, I'd like to introduce him to you. Step right up, ladies and gentlemen, and meet the tall, decorative gent with the crew haircut—Leland Hayward.

Mons. Hayward, as the drama puges have been telling you, currently has his name on two of Broadway's most distinguished successes—"Mr. Roberts" and "Anne of the Thousand Days." But—and I think the "but" is more important than the two hits—he's the only impresario around today on whom Belasco's turned-around collar and Ziegfeld's Technicolor shirt would look good.

Before getting down to cases, let's first case his case history. Leland was born two-score and a few years ago with an impressive array of silver cutlery in his mouth. As the son of one of our best families, he had the best care, was taught by the best teachers, and eventually was thrown out of one of our best schools—Princeton.

On the prowl for a little pocket money, our hero took a fast crack at being several things—a newspaperman, a press agent, a talent scout and a Hollywood movie producer.

When he found there was more money in selling than signing staves, he opened a booking agency with Myron Seznick, the greatest temperancer of them all, and by a series of katzenjammer stunts the pair managed to wrangle salary increases for their clients until their commissions amounted to more take-home money than they had home for.

At one time it was Hollywood gossip that the harassed studio bosses had raised $3,000,000 to drive the deal-happy duo out of town. Next, our high-flying hero became an aviation enthusiast, and when the war came along, he took over a patch of mesquite in Arizona and built the famous Thunderbird Field where the Air Corps trained thousands of its top pilots.

Between times, Leland was seen in the fashionable chophouses of N.Y. and L.A. with a series of firecracker femmes including Katherine Hepburn and the Great Garbo herself, but when it came to the I-to-business he crossed up the columnists by getting hitched to the adorable Margaret Sullivan. Out of this union came three of the cutest kids who ever put spoon to Pabulum, and when Leland and Maggie called it a day not long ago, sob-sisters around the country damaged their dearest hammers.

Since the war, Leland has been keeping company with three girl friends. Two of them are old sweeties, aviation and agenting, but the third—the legitimate theatre—is a new playmate, and judging by the way they're getting along, I hope he marries the gal.

Here's a run-down of his Broadway box score: 1. "A Bell for Adano" (ran a year); 2. "State of the Union" (two years); 3. "Mr. Roberts" (presumably forever); 4. "Anne of the Thousand Days" (try to buy a seat). Next on the agenda is the Rodgers-Hammerstein musical, "Tales of South Pacific," and betting against it is like betting against Notre Dame.

How come Leland has hit so hard so fast? Well, for openers, he has a feel for the tinkle of words and beaucoup respect for the gents who write them.

Next, he seems to be able to charm anyone within charming distance, and his theatrical banner usually features a top star—Fredric March in "Adano," Henry Fonda in "Roberts," Rex Harrison in "Anne," and Ezio Pinza and Mary Martin for "South Pacific."

Third, he mounts his shows as if he had never heard of comp-meter—the gag around his office is that he won't buy two of anything if he can make four do.

I don't know what Leland's future plans are—chances are he doesn't know them himself—but his record shows that he can knock the ball over any fence he chooses. And as an old member of the Two-On-The-Aisle Club, I'm hoping that he keeps aiming for that iron fence on Shubert Alley.

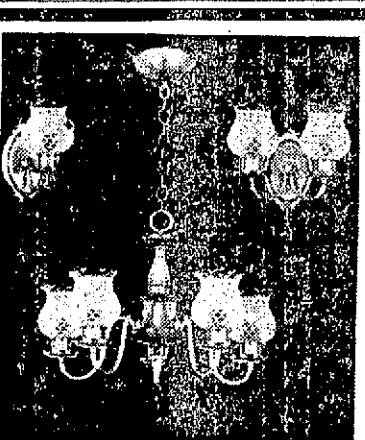

For my dough, as of right now, Hayward is the only producer on Broadway who has the feel of the old-time greats.

Einstein Undergoes Hospital Observation

New York, Dec. 29 (AP)—Prof. Albert Einstein is in a hospital here, but a spokesman says "he's perfectly O.K." He's smoking his pipe and doing his work in bed.

The spokesman said the renowned scientist and pioneer in atomic energy research was admitted yesterday to the Jewish Hospital of Brooklyn for a rest and observation only.

Asked if Einstein's condition was serious, the spokesman said, "certainly not."

He said Einstein, who will be 70 next March, was brought to the hospital by Dr. Rudolph Nissen, a New York physician.

Einstein is best known for his work on atomic energy and his exposition of the theory of relativity.

ACCORD

Accord, Dec. 29—The local post office will be closed all day on New Year's, January 1. There will be no mail or rural delivery service that day.

The attractively lighted large spruce tree in the yard of the former Charles Anderson home has attracted much attention. It says Merry Christmas to all who enter the town.

Many family Christmas dinners were enjoyed by those in the community.

The local post office reports a record amount of mail handled during the pre-Christmas rush both on the rural routes and in the office. The regular staff was assisted by Mrs. Harry Ford and Iva Clearwater.

Check the Price — check the Policy —
"Buick's the Buy!"

EVER since this '49 Buick made its bow, we've been telling you it's a buy.

We've invited you to match it—feature by feature and dollar for dollar—with anything else offered to you. You can start with the delivered prices shown here.

But don't stop with that. Check the policy under which Buicks are sold—and see for yourself that Buick means a better deal as well as a better buy!

Briefly, our Four-Square sales policy is this:

1. NO PRICE PADDING! We guarantee our prices to contain nothing but charges that were standard practice in figuring prewar delivered prices. You receive an itemized bill of sale showing all charges. And we display our prices in our showroom.

2. NO "LOADING" OF UNWANTED ACCESSORIES. All cars are delivered with accessories as ordered. We pledge ourselves to add no "extras" you do not want.

3. NO COMPULSORY TRADE-INS. Selling used cars is part of our business. Naturally we like to take cars in trade. But you do not have to sell your car to us! We will take your order, and deliver your car, without requiring a car in trade!

4. NO COLLUSION WITH "GRAY MARKETEERS." We will not knowingly be party to a sale of Buick cars to any individual who operates in the "gray market." Our interest is entirely in delivering cars to bona fide customers.

In other words—you know exactly where you stand when you buy a Buick. What you get—what you pay—all the details of the deal open and aboveboard.

So we repeat: Check the price. Check the policy. Buick's the buy any way you want to look at it.

C.I.O. Hits A.B.C. Segregation Ruling

Newark, N. J., Dec. 29 (AP)—The New Jersey State C.I.O. has called on Gov. Driscoll to prevent the American Bowling Congress from doing business in the state because it limits entries to "white persons of the male sex."

The A.B.C. has scheduled its annual tournament in Atlantic City's Civic Auditorium from February 12 to April 12.

Arthur Chapin, civil rights director of the state C.I.O., said in a letter to the governor the A.B.C. "which sets itself up as the official agency that determines championship bowlers limits competition to members of the 'white race.'"

"Since this type of bigotry is not in the interest of the citizens of New Jersey," Chapin added, "we call upon you to use your good offices in denying the A.B.C. the right to do business in New Jersey."

The problem of the white rule was considered by the A.B.C. at its annual convention last April 16. At that time, despite heated pressure, the delegates refused to remove the clause from the constitution.

Elmer H. Baumgarten, A.B.C. secretary, refused to comment yesterday on the C.I.O.'s action.

Housing Development in Port Ewen

Row of homes under construction in former orchard.

One of brick veneer, six-room houses almost completed.

Three Homes Are To Be Ready for First of January

A housing development, planned to eventually include 200 units, has been started in the 35-acre former Bellini Orchard in Port Ewen by Nick Schwartz, Kingston contractor, and Arthur Windram, plumbing contractor of Port Ewen. Christopher G. Reardon of Kingston is office manager.

Work is nearing completion on six of the homes, three of which are expected to be ready for occupancy by January, Schwartz said. Three families have already made arrangements to move in by the first of the year.

The homes contain six rooms and are finished in brick veneer. Each is on a 60 by 100-foot lot, and will sell for about $12,500.

Schwartz said Port Ewen was chosen for the location because of its nearness to Kingston, lower taxes than in the city, and the fact that all conveniences including running water, gas and electricity are available.

He added that the development is located on Route 9W, the main artery on the west shore of the Hudson river between the metropolitan area of New York and Albany.

The surrounding territory offers a beautiful view of the mountains, he pointed out.

The homes so far built have been custom built, and are of the finest materials and workmanship, Schwartz said. Broad streets have been laid out through the development to permit easy access to all the homes. The plot has been divided into 230 lots, each 60 by 100 feet.

Each home is equipped with the latest available oil heating system, it was said.

Schwartz said that he hopes eventually to be able to offer homes of four rooms with two additional unfinished rooms upstairs for a price about $8,250.

Vets Considered The homes will be offered to general buyers, although Schwartz indicated that veterans will find them desirable and that the development will be taken up by about 80 per cent veterans. Arrangements for financing the purchase may be made, he said.

Schwartz, who lives at 42 Abel street, has been in the contracting business in Kingston for 28 years.

Family Life Film Will Be Released By State Jan. 3

Albany, Dec. 29—Family life education is emphasized in a film to be released January 3 for group showings in all communities of this state.

"Families First," directed at strengthening home life and in the interest of prevention of delinquency, was produced by the New York State Youth Commission, which furnishes state financial assistance to 600 municipally operated youth projects.

Announcement of the release of "Families First" and an accompanying discussion guide for use by high schools, colleges, church and P.T.A. groups, service clubs and other agencies interested in family life education was made today by Robert P. Capes, executive secretary of the commission.

"All too often parents have not been adequately prepared for their most important responsibility, the proper rearing of children," Mr. Capes stated. "There is a pressing need to help prepare today's children to be tomorrow's parents and to assist today's parents in better fulfilling their desire to furnish the most wholesome influence in the home."

"I believe that the Youth Commission's visual aid program will be effective in strengthening the family life of our state. With this novel approach we are providing entertainment and achieving education."

Packed into "Families First" are episodes showing in rapid sequence, scenes from early settlers' days to the present. The film portrays two types of modern families and clearly illustrates the wrong and the right way to rear youngsters.

Previews won the approval of clergymen, social workers, trade publications, physicians, educators and parents.

In the development of the 16-page accompanying guide, the State Youth Commission was assisted by the New York State Department of Education. The procedures were thoroughly tested based upon the use of "Families First" with 7th grade children, junior and senior high school classes and adult groups in Glen Falls.

The production of "Families First" by the New York State Youth Commission was motivated by the recognition of the major part played by home life in the development of children.

The commission's unique approach in supplying practical aids to those who have an intelligent and sympathetic concern with family life problems will narrow the educational gap between school and parenthood.

"Families First" is a 16 mm., 17 minute sound documentary. It will be released free of charge to interested groups and agencies in this state. Inquiries may be directed to the New York State Youth Commission, 30 Lodge street, Albany 7, New York.

Chief Says Martin Proposals on Fire Engine Has Merits

A proposal by 12th Ward Republican Alderman James E. Martin to transfer Fire Engine No. 3 from central station to the engine house of Excelsior Hose Company on Hurley avenue was considered as one having merit at a meeting of the Board of Fire Commissioners last night. Fire Chief Joseph L. Murphy said today.

The board took no action on the proposal, but considered suggestions in a letter sent by the alderman to the commissioners and Chief Murphy earlier this month, the chief said.

The letter referred to Engine No. 3 which was formerly at the Wilkewick station. It was recommended following a mishap and placed in central fire station as an emergency unit.

Stresses Growth of Area
Alderman Martin's letter stressed the continued growth of the Main street, Lucas avenue, Golden Hill, Boulevard and Pearl street extension areas in the ward, and asked the board and the chief to consider the need for the engine at the Excelsior engine house.

The letter also stressed the higher altitudes of properties in the area and the need of an adequate pumping unit to achieve proper pressure.

A copy of a petition sent to Mayor Oscar V. Newkirk by 12th Ward residents in the Murphy street area requesting a new fire alarm box there, was read at the session. The board took no action, but indicated the proposal would be considered in a general survey to determine the possible need of additional alarm boxes in various sectors.

he obeyed. It was thought the Dutch wanted to have their "police action" against the republic virtually completed before agreeing to end the fighting in Java and Sumatra.

Van Royen had asked yesterday for more time to get instructions from his government. The Dutch inner cabinet met in The Hague today and evidently reached the decision.

The council has heard from its Good Offices Committee in The Netherlands Indies that Soekarno, Premier Mohammed Hatta and the other leaders taken at the Republican capital, Jogjakarta, were being held in resorts outside the island of Java.

Arrest of Cardinal Is Sicken Sham: Lovett

Washington, Dec. 29 (P)—Undersecretary of State Lovett said today Communist Hungary's arrest of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty was a sickening sham.

He also attacked as unthinkable the label of war criminals placed by the Chinese Communists on Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek and other Nationalist leaders.

Lovett assailed Communist actions in Europe and the Far East at a news conference.

He also reported that Madame Chiang Kai-shek had called on him at the State Department Monday to renew her requests for great new American assistance to China's anti-Communist forces. She has been in this country for several weeks to solicit additional aid for her husband's government.

On other points Lovett said that:

1. Negotiations with Canada and the western European nations on a north Atlantic security pact are going along at a satisfactory rate. So far American opposition to Dutch policies in Indonesia has not affected Dutch participation in the military alliance talks here.
2. Press reports on Marshal Tito's threat to switch Yugoslav trade from the Communist bloc to the western nations have been seen at the State Department. In this connection Lovett reaffirmed American belief in the general desirability of east-west trade in Europe.

Lovett said the United States regards the arrest of Cardinal Mindszenty as the culmination of a long series of actions by the Hungarian government against personal, human, and now religious freedoms.

through stormy North Atlantic waters before the mission was initiated by the rescue of the man. Air force and navy estimates of the cost of crash and rescue are rough approximations, at best. Here's a general breakdown:

$100,000 for the crashed C-47 transport; $300,000 for a specially equipped rescue B-17; $44,000 for the two CG 15A gliders, and $60,000 for fuel and installation of special equipment, helicopter, stowage, and other items on the ship.

That adds up to $494,000. But air force officials noted that most estimates on the crashed aircraft do not take into account either depreciation from past service or possible future salvage value.

No accounting was made of the supplies dropped to the stranded men or for fuel and other items entailed in the air force rescue operations.

Cost of rescue is seldom tabulated by the armed services, spokesmen said. They explained that since the rescues must be attempted regardless of expense, no one keeps close tabs on the dollars and cents expended.

Reservists Make Complaint

Washington, Dec. 29 (P)—Army reserve officers contended today that the army is "discriminating in the extreme" in regulations governing promotions of regular officers and those of reserve officers. Col. C. E. Barnes, president of the Reserve Officers Association, complained to Secretary of the Army Royall that reserve officers must serve longer than regulars before being eligible for promotion. Royall is on a tour of Europe. He will not return to his office until Monday. Brig. Gen. E. A. Evers, executive director of the association, declared that about 40,000 reservists are affected.

Woman Dies in Fall

Cleveland, Dec. 29 (P)—A woman about 30 today plunged nine floors to her death seven minutes after registering as a guest at Hotel Hollenden. Police said she registered under the name of Mrs. J. R. Olson of New York city. Her body crashed into a covered skylight directly over the Hollenden lobby.

Three Assault Cases Before City Judge Cahill

Joseph Washington, 246 Catherine street, who was arrested Tuesday night on a third degree assault charge, was sentenced to 90 days in the county jail by City Judge Matthew V. Cahill today. Washington was arrested by Officers Charles Hoehing and Louis Sapp Jr., following a call at 8:30 p. m. to 246 Catherine street, on complaint of Catherine Washington.

A third degree assault charge against Dallas Walker, 157 Abeel street, was withdrawn by the complainant Jennie Robinson this morning. He was arrested by Officers James Burns and Earl Schoonmaker following a call at 4:35 p. m. to Abeel and Ryne streets.

Vincent Bouck, of 486 Wilbur avenue who was arrested by Officers Burns and Schoonmaker on a warrant charging third degree assault earlier yesterday afternoon, pleaded not guilty and hearing was set for a week from Monday. The complainant was John Dougherty of the same address.

Charges of disorderly conduct against two youths who were arrested yesterday afternoon were dropped. They were arrested by Officers Elbert Soper and Gurney Burger on complaint of a resident of Lindenman avenue extension, who said they were discharging rifles in the neighborhood.

William Duffy, 75 East Strand, who was arrested by Officers Hoehing and Sapp yesterday on a disorderly conduct charge, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

Chiang Call . . .

troops, many of whom have already moved into Nanking, are among the few good armies left to the Nationalists.

Chang Chih-chung, veteran northwest China leader, a general without armies but with considerable influence, particularly among the "middle roaders" of the Kuomintang (government) party.

Hu Tsung-nan, Sian commander whose capture of the Communist capital of Yenan subsequently was blotted by a long succession of defeats at the hands of the Reds. Lu Han, governor of Yunnan province whose gateway into Burma and India makes his area important to any Chinese government.

Yen Hsi-shan, warlord governor of the besieged Shensi capital Taiyuan who told newsmen here that "I would rather die in defense of my city than surrender it to the Reds."

Meeting with the group likely will be Vice President Li Tsung-jen, Defense Minister Hsu Yung-chang, Chief of Staff Ku Chu-tung and Chiang.

One report said T. V. Soong, brother-in-law of Chiang and the only civilian governor left in Nationalist China, was flying here from Canton to join the conference.

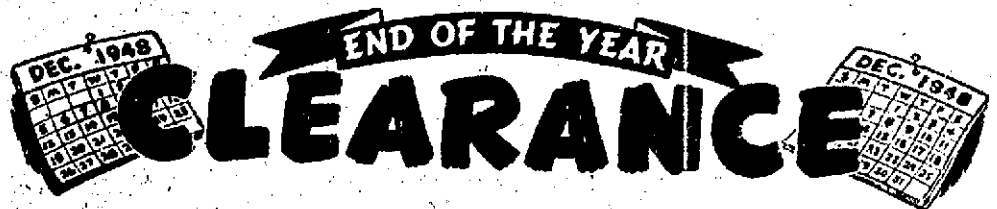

Nanking was filled with rumors of peace. One source described the forthcoming meeting as a "roll call" of those National leaders who still retain personal fol-lowings either military or civil in order to determine the feasibility of continuing the war with the Communists.

Hu Tsung-nan, Yen Hsi-shan and Ku Chu-tung met with Chiang today. Later Yen called on the vice president. There was almost constant movement among the top officials as they exchanged opinions.

Dewey Welcomes Democratic Pledge

Albany, N. Y., Dec. 29 (AP)—Governor Dewey extended a warm hand today to a Democratic pledge of support for his legislative program but turned a cold shoulder to a suggestion of a two-party conference.

The pledge came from Democratic State Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick who assured Dewey of "very cooperation" in putting his program into effect "because it is a program so near to the principles as well as to the specific recommendations of the Democratic party."

Fitzpatrick, in a letter to Dewey yesterday, said also: "During the past month you have indicated, through various spokesmen, that your administration will support many measures in the coming session of the state legislature which the Democratic minority has for some years advocated."

He suggested a conference of Republican and Democratic legislative leaders so that "action can be facilitated" in the 1949 legislature.

Asked about Fitzpatrick's letter at a news conference, Dewey commented: "I am sure all the help we can get in solving the problems of the state would be graciously and gratefully received by the legislative leaders."

Dewey only laughed when a reporter, referring to Democratic leaders, remarked: "But you won't meet with them." "A Dewey aide said later there would be no meeting."

New York (NEA) — Proof that fashion and safety walk hand in hand is the stylized raincoat shown of water-repellent coat which gives a warning to night-driving motorists like a light-reflector road sign.

Illumination comes from a revolutionary type of Scotch-light trimming used to bind the hood, pockets and collar of the raincoat. What reflects so brilliantly in the beams of oncoming headlights are tiny glass spheres. Thousands of these are superimposed by means of a special leveling process upon each square inch of trimming fabric used.

This illuminating fabric trims women's raincoats, hats and handbags, men's and boys' slickers, hunting jackets and caps and is sewn to the leather of dogs' collars and leashes.—By EPIE KINARD, NEA Fashion Editor.

Navy War Supplies Will Get Cold Test

Terminal Island Navy Base, Calif., Dec. 29 (AP)—There's no trick to keeping warm in Alaska. The trick is to still be able to move with all that clothing on.

That and other problems, says Rear Adm. L. T. DuBose, the navy hopes to solve during amphibious operations at Kodiak Island sometime in February.

A fleet of 34 vessels—one of almost every navy type—plus 16,000 sailors, 2,000 marines and 120 carrier-based aircraft, including four jets, will launch an assault on the island in the Gulf of Alaska, site of the navy's northernmost Pacific base.

Defending the island will be army, airforce and naval units directed by Rear Adm. A. E. Montgomery, commanding the Alaskan Sea frontier.

Not only clothing, but scores of other items—such as oil, engines and de-icing gear—as well as food and personnel will be tested.

For delicious baked apples sweeten with maple syrup and baste frequently during baking.

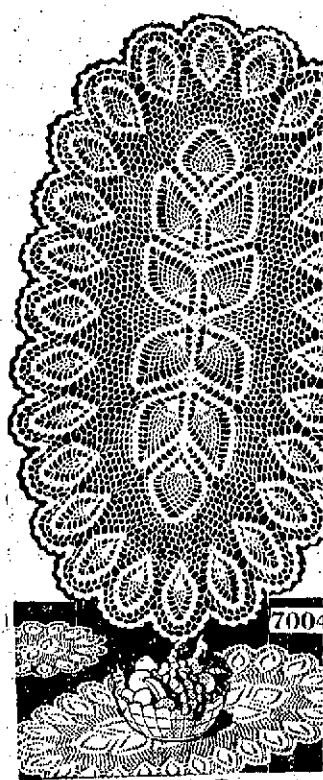

Greetings for a Happy New Year and may 1949 hold all the fulfillment of all your dreams.

Colonials Sign New Pitcher And Outfielder for '49

Laviano Promises Several New Men

The rebuilding program for the 1949 Kingston Colonials started yesterday with the signing of two outstanding young prospects by Business Manager Ted Laviano.

Acquisition of the two players followed closely on the heels of the announcement that Eddie Kobesky, slugging first sacker and 1948 manager, had been given his unconditional release.

The new men are 23-year-old Joseph Mercurio of New Rochelle, N. Y., an outfielder; and Hamilton Graham, Jr., 22-year-old right-handed pitcher from Yonkers, N. Y.

Mercurio, who stands 5 feet 9 inches and weighs 170 pounds, was a star outfielder with two city championship teams at Albert Leonard High School in New Rochelle, and had a brief trial with Port Chester of the Colonial League where he batted .333 but was let out because the Clippers were over the player limit.

When not playing at Port Chester, Mercurio was with the New Rochelle Steamers who captured the Queen City Sound Shore League title. Also patrolling the pastures for the Steamers, Joe compiled a .375 batting average.

Graham is a 6-foot, 170-pounder who played sandlot ball in a Yonkers League during 1948 and was awarded a trophy as the most valuable player in the league. In the last three playoff games he won all three and allowed a total of only four runs in 27 innings.

The signing of Graham and Mercurio will be followed by the announcement of new acquisitions in the next few days, Laviano said. The Colonial business manager intimated yesterday that the club is going to have the strongest club it has had in years. "And everybody who intends to play for me is going to hustle," he continued. "They'll either hustle us out of last place or I'll hustle them elsewhere."

Sounds Familiar
West Acton, Mass., Dec. 29 (AP)—Here's some cheery news for Chicago White Sox fans from Jack Onslow, the club's new manager. And also an emphatic warning for his players. "Chicago will not be the American League's doormat in 1949," Onslow promises. "That city is going to have the strongest club it has had in years. And everybody who intends to play for me is going to hustle," he continued. "They'll either hustle us out of last place or I'll hustle them elsewhere."

Williamson's Predictions

By PAUL B. WILLIAMSON
(Williamson Rating System)

To bowl or not to bowl. It has become customary to call it a "bowl game." That is, any football contest not scheduled for regular season play but set up as an after-season performance.

The first Rose Bowl was played in 1902 when Michigan engulfed Stanford by 49-0. That was the first—and only—grid "bowl" during American football history till 1916. In 1916 Washington State beat Brown by 14-0 in a resumption of the Rose Bowl classic which has been held in an unbroken chain every year since then.

Other "bowls" started in time as follows: East-West Shrine, 1925; Orange, 1933; Sugar, 1934; Sun, 1936; Cotton, 1937, to name a few of the earlier ones. Now there are more than 40 in action.

In this release Williamson predicts on 17 bowls. There were five of them this last Thanksgiving Day.

Sicklers Face Woodridge Next

Due to a cancellation of the January 5 home date against the West Point cagers, Sickler's Colonials will remain idle in the Orange-Sullivan Basketball League until January 8 when they invade the lair of the powerful, undefeated Woodridge Atoms.

Despite their unimpressive 3-4 record, the Colonials are in third place according to the latest standings, trailing the Atoms by two and a half games, and 1½ behind the defending champions, Middletown Royals.

The Royals, incidentally, have won three straight games after an opening defeat by Kingston. Woodridge is credited with six straight wins.

League Resumes
The Catholic A. A. Bowling League will resume its weekly schedule tonight at Ferraro's Bowlodrome at 7 o'clock.

Jockey Johnny Longden rode three winners yesterday to bring his year's total to 316, equalling the record he set as the nation's riding champ last year. He came in first on Grand LaGrand in the second, Shifty Roman in the third, and Be Sure Now in the sixth.

Tarheels Win Crown
Lafayette, La., Dec. 29 (AP)—The North Carolina Tarheels added the Camellia basketball crown to their laurels here last night with a hard-won 60 to 49 victory over the University of Arizona.

Oregon's passer Norm Van Brocklin gets a wide-brimmed cowboy hat from SMU senior Phyllis Porter in Dallas. The Webfoots are in town for their Cotton Bowl game with Southern Methodist, Jan. 11.

Bowling Scores
It's getting so that Reta Frederick leads the Friendship League koglerettes with about the same consistency that Rose Schatzel dominates the Colonial Women's wheel.

Mrs. Frederick added another illustrious string to her fast growing collection last night with a brilliant 587 series at the Central.

After pouring a 234 opener, the KWBA secretary fashioned 191 and 162 to lead the league by a wide margin. Her 234 assisted the powerful Gardenaia Tractors to roll up a new record game of 934 in the first set.

Five hundred were not too plentiful, Bea Barley clicked 184-517, and Evelyn Dolsen knocked off 180-519. Other top efforts included Marge Jansen's 170-492; Jo Smith, 172-492; Winnie Overfield 217-482 (but don't mention the 117); Carrie Mohr, 182-483; Fran Hogan 188-479 and A. Markle 162-474.

Jack Haulebeck and Ray Otto were the leaders in a night of desultory shooting in the Federation National Division with 549 and 521 respectively.

Haulebeck strung games of 193-196-160, while Ray lit for 165-205-151. Stan Hankinson clipped 187-510.

Doubleheader Set In Rec League

The undefeated, league leading Sickler Delivery squad meets Potter Brothers in the feature attraction of a Recreation League basketball doubleheader tonight at 8 o'clock at the municipal auditorium.

The first game at 7 o'clock brings together Belchert's Studabakers and Schuler's Inn.

Potter's have won three straight after a first game defeat to Belchert's Sickler's have reeled off five straight.

Sickler's will be bolstered by the return of sharpshooting Tony Albany, who missed the last few games, because of a back ailment.

Percy Greene, the Schoonmaker brothers, and Engle and Terwilliger are the heavy men in the Potter lineup.

L.S.U. Boxers Win Sugar Bowl Crown

New Orleans, Dec. 29 (AP)—Louisiana State University boxers won five of eight bouts to defeat Michigan State mittmen by three points in the Sugar Bowl collegiate boxing show here.

The Bengals from L.S.U. piled up 5½ points to Michigan's 2½. One bout ended in a draw.

Winning boxers were awarded gold trophies last night for their appearance in the third event of the Mid-Winter Sports Association week-long athletic carnival.

Good Fit
Oregon's passer Norm Van Brocklin gets a wide-brimmed cowboy hat from SMU senior Phyllis Porter in Dallas. The Webfoots are in town for their Cotton Bowl game with Southern Methodist, Jan. 11.

Rollie LaStarza is regarded as the most promising of the young heavyweight crop. He's a smart boxer, which isn't surprising. He rated a B plus average at City College of New York, still cracks the books occasionally just to see how it feels.

Riversiders Edge Potters, 46-45 In Y Thriller; 7th Ward Winners

Goercke's Basket Decides Contest

Ray's Riversiders and the 7th Ward won two well played games in the Y.M.C.A. Winter League last night, the Riversiders nosing out Potter Brothers, 46-45, in the last 20 seconds, while the Wardmen tripped Fuller Sport's, 53-48, with a five point advantage in the fourth quarter.

Eric Goercke's layup with 20 seconds remaining won Ray's against Potter's. With three minutes to go, the clubs were deadlocked at 37-37.

At the 40-second mark, Potter's waived a foul and took the ball out of bounds at midcourt. They led 45-44 at the time and after freezing the ball for about 20 seconds, Bob Neilus tried and missed a set shot from the corner.

Goercke Wins Game
Van Wageningen recovered the rebound for Ray's and passed out quickly to Eric Goercke at midcourt and the sharpshooter dribbled in for the winning layup.

The Fuller-7th Ward contest found the clubs deadlocked at 31-31 going into the final quarter when the winners unloaded 22 points to 17 for the losers.

Van Wageningen sparked Ray's victory with 19 points, while Goercke and Ebelheiser had 14 and 12 respectively. Schoonmaker scored 12 and Percy Greene 10 for Potter's.

Hughes Sinks 19
George Hughes, playing his best game of the season, made a valiant effort to keep Fuller's in the game against 7th Ward. He accounted for 19 points, made numerous interceptions and was unstopable with a dazzling left handed hook shot.

Jeff Brannen scored 11 for Fuller's, while top men for Ward were Dick Priest and Basch with 15 and 14 respectively.

Basketball Greats In Sugar Bowl

New Orleans, Dec. 29 (AP)—The greatest collection of collegiate cage talent since last spring's final Olympic tryouts will be assembled at the municipal auditorium here tonight for the opening of the streamlined four-team Sugar Bowl basketball tournament.

Colliding in the first game of the two-night hoop carnival at 7:30 p. m. C.S.T. will be undefeated St. Louis University, winner of the National Invitation Tournament last season, and Holy Cross, defending Eastern N.C.A.A. champion and collegiate titleholder the previous year.

The second game tonight sends Kentucky's all-victorious Wildcats, present holders of the N.C.A.A. crown, against a Tulane quintet that has won eight of its nine starts this season.

While Kentucky is favored to turn back Tulane by four points, a feat accomplished in Louisville only last week, the St. Louis-Holy Cross tussle is rated a toss-up.

Plan Hotfoot For Citation

Miami, Fla., Dec. 29 (AP)—Dr. A. H. Davidson, veterinarian of Lexington, Ky., was all ready to apply a firing iron today to galling Citation's injured left foreleg.

Dr. Davidson arrived yesterday and completed preparations for the firing last night.

Warren Wright's champion three-year-old horse came out of the Dec. 11 Tanforan Handicap in California with a "popped osselet." The growth was described as about the size of a half dollar.

Trainer Jimmy Jones said the injury was not as serious as at first feared. He said he hoped the horse would be able to return to racing next spring but that depended entirely on how rapidly the animal responded to treatment.

Repeal of Race TaxNew York, Dec. 29 (AP)—Mayor
William O'Dwyer says he will oppose the State Racing Commis-per cent city and county tax on racing "with everything I have.""This is one time," the mayor said, "that the city is not going to take it lying down."He added that the money realized from the tax is required for essential public services, particularly health and hospital work."It is a fine time for quibbling about the tax, that the city is getting to help pay for these services," O'Dwyer added. "If it were not for the racetracks in New York city, and the revenue they get from New York city residents, you could buy horse meat for 10 cents a pound."The Racing Commission, in its annual report released Monday, said that pari-mutuel betting had fallen off 42 per cent at New York tracks, and blamed the loss of revenue on the five per cent tax collected by New York city and Nassau and Saratoga counties.This tax first was imposed in 1946. O'Dwyer was one of its chief sponsors.He said, "I do not share the grief of the State Racing Commission or in the grief of horse owners, horse players or the financiers who operate our racetracks in New York city. I wish they would share with me in the interest of our state and the general welfare of the city."The mayor, who said he will oppose "any attempt" to change the local tax setup on racing, estimated that the collections, even in the face of declining betting, would yield the city about $1.8-

Patrolman Welch Completes 35 Years As Officer Dec. 30

Patrolman James E. Welch of the local police department will have completed 35 years of service on the force December 30, it was learned today.

Officer Welch and Patrolman Robert F. Hasley were honored in December, 1938 by the Kingston Patrolmen's Association for their completion on 25 years of service, and the association at the same time paid tribute to Officer Ray Saelhoff, who retired after 21 years of service.

Before his appointment as a patrolman on Dec. 30, 1913, Officer Welch had been a marine engineer employed by the Cornell Steamboat Co. He had been working on the tugboat Terry just prior to joining the police force. In his younger days, the patrolman was known as a baseball player with the Rondout A. C. William T. Roedel, now captain on the force, was president of the K.P.A. ten years ago when Patrolmen Welch and Hasley were presented with watches in tribute to their service of a quarter of a century on the force. Officer Saelhoff was presented with a signet ring.

Patrolman Welch holds the record for the department in years of service. Next are Lt. James P. Martin and Elbert L. Soper, who have completed 31 years of service.

Insurance Dividends To Be Paid Veterans

Washington, Dec. 29 (AP)—Dividends ranging from a few cents to several hundred dollars will be paid out in 1949 to veterans who took out National Service Life Insurance.

The Veterans Administration said in announcing this that 16,000,000 veterans may share in the payments.

Unofficial estimates of the size of the surplus fund, from which the dividends will be paid, range from $1,500,000,000 to $2,000,000,000.

Officials said that veterans who took out the minimum $1,000 policy and held it a short time will receive only a small dividend. But the G.I.'s who got into the program early and for the maximum amount of $10,000 probably will receive up to several hundred dollars.

The V.A. plans to make refunds on all policies on which premiums were paid for three or more months. This includes policies that have lapsed or matured, as well as those now in force.

The first policies were effective October 8, 1940. The dividends will cover the period through the 1948 anniversary.

Officials said they doubted if payments will start before next August.

Britain, France Favor Ruhr Industries Control

London, Dec. 29 (AP)—Announcement yesterday of a six-power draft agreement for international control of Germany's Ruhr industries won favorable reaction in Britain and France.

Russia, left out in the cold, was scornful. The Moscow radio said the plan was a triumph of American "reaction."

Western German political leaders denounced the proposed international control. The Germans are expected to protest vigorously but are not expected to boycott the new Ruhr authority in which they are entitled to representation.

Questions-Answers

Q—What is the Giant's Causeway?

A—This is a formation of basaltic rocks projecting from sheer cliffs into the North Channel on the northeast coast of Ireland. They received their name from a legend that they were once part of a walk or bridge built by giants on which to pass between Ireland and Scotland.

Q—Why is it often said that George Washington was an Englishman?

A—Because he was for the greater part of his life, George Washington and most of the other men who helped to found our country were colonial Englishmen until the Revolution.

Q—How accurate is the giant eye of the Palomar telescope?

A—This huge disk of material like that used for glass baking dishes, through years of patient grinding has been shaped into a paraboloid, perfect within two-millionths of an inch.

Q—What is the origin of the term "jazz"?

A—The most common explanation is that it is a Creole word for "speed up," probably of African origin.

Q—Who wrote the music to "The Lost Chord"?

A—Sir Arthur Sullivan, of Gilbert and Sullivan. This hymn was probably the most successful English song of the 19th century.

Another Rabid Fox Appears on Farm In Ulster Heights

Rabies in a fox was diagnosed by the State Laboratory in Albany, according to a report received Monday by Dr. George James, commissioner of health. Eight animals in the county have been diagnosed as rabid since July 2 of this year.
The fox appeared on a farm in the Ulster Heights Section of the Township of Wawarsing and was caught by six dogs after a fight.
The owner of the farm took the dead fox to Dr. Charles Freer, veterinarian, who then contacted the Ulster County Health Department. Dr. Gilbert Hoppstedt, county veterinarian, secured the head and shipped it to the Division of Laboratories and Research of the New York State Health Department, Albany.
The six dogs who had the encounter with the fox had all been inoculated against rabies by Dr. Robert McCartney of Ellenville. Under the Public Health Law, the dogs must be quarantined for four months for observation to see if any symptoms of rabies develop.
The importance of immunization of dogs to act as a barrier between animals such as the fox who may have rabies and human beings is emphasized through the incident. Dr. Hoppstedt stated: "The incidence of rabies in animals seems to be localized in the Ulster Heights and Greenfield Park Section of the Township of Wawarsing."

Wawarsing. The last rabid fox was secured a half mile away from where the first rabid animal was found this year and only a quarter of a mile away from where the last rabid fox was found.
The localization of the disease, Dr. Hoppstedt continued, has been accomplished through the dog immunization program of the Ulster County Rabies Advisory Council, the Ulster County Health Department and the fox trapping program of the New York State Conservation Department.

Korea Strong Enough Without U. S. Troops

Seoul, Dec. 29 (AP)—President Syngman Rhee said today the current withdrawal of some American troops from Korea "leaves our security sufficiently safeguarded."
"I believe that within a comparatively short time our national defense force will no longer need the presence of a large security force," Rhee said in a prepared statement.
(In Washington the army had announced "portions" of the American security force, including the Seventh Division, were being withdrawn for regrouping in Japan.)
The Washington announcement occasioned little surprise here. Koreans have been able to watch the departure of some units under orders which American army spokesmen said were still classified as "secret."
Maj. Gen. John D. Coulter, commanding the U. S. 24th Corps, grunted and said "no comment" when asked for details of the movement. The observable facts indicate that some elements of both the Seventh and Sixth U. S. Divisions are being formed into a combat team to replace the corps organization as a security force.
Korean officials doubt that the revision of the American army establishment will tempt northern Communists to attempt serious disorders in the country.

Koch Photoplay Deals With Prince of Monaco

Howard Koch, of Hollywood, playwright and screen dramatist, has written a photoplay with Max Opuls, film director-writer, about Floristan, Prince of Monaco, under the title, Kingdom of Chance. Koch and Opuls will attempt to interest James Mason in the film and they then hope to sell it as a package to a producing company, with Opuls as the director and Mason as the star.
Koch, former local resident, also is author with Anne Froelich of The Glass House, a comedy of the American manners, which will go into rehearsal in New York City in January. The Glass House probably will open as a road show before being offered to Broadway audiences.
Koch is the son of Frederick Koch of Schryver Court, and the late Mrs. Koch.

They've Got to Quit

Yokohama, Dec. 29 (AP)—Playful U. S. soldiers have got to quit playing motoman on Yokohama's rickety old trolley cars. The post-vost marshal cracked down today with an order forbidding it. The reason: It makes the Japanese passengers nervous and they all get off at the next stop when a G.I. grabs the controls and "guns" the groaning old rattletaps.

Three Children Die In Port Jervis Fire

Port Jervis, N. Y., Dec. 28 (AP)—Three small children burned to death today in a one-room cottage near here while their mother was away getting water for household purposes.
Firemen from Port Jervis and Sparrowbush were unable to arrive in time to put out the flames. They said an oil stove explosion probably caused the blaze.
The victims, the only children of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilson, were Diana, 4, Harry Jr., 2, and Lawrence I. Gilson is an employee of a cosmetics factory here.

Air Terminal Is Standing Pat on Serving Negroes

Washington, Dec. 29 (AP)—Despite a government anti-segregation order, Negroes still can't eat in the main restaurants at Washington National Airport, across the Potomac river in Virginia.
Six of them tried to yesterday. But Paul R. Boyd, general manager for Air Terminal Services, Inc., which operates the airport's food concessions, said his firm intends to maintain its long-standing segregation policy pending further study of the order.
It was issued Monday by D. W. Rentzel, Civil Aeronautics administrator. The C.A.A. operates the airport for the government.
The six Negroes who were refused service in the main dining room shortly after Boyd announced the company's position included a reporter and a photographer from a Negro newspaper. None gave their names.
"We are still abiding by the Virginia law on segregation while our legal department studies the matter," Boyd said he told the group. He added that he informed them a cafeteria for Negroes is available in the terminal.
Under the Washington National Airport Act, violations of federal orders are punishable by fines up to $5,000 plus jail sentences up to six months.
That act of Congress, ratified by the Virginia Legislature, makes the airport virtually a federal reservation, except for application of state law against serving hard liquor and for state power to serve legal papers there.

Marshall Is Resting

Pinehurst, N. C., Dec. 29 (AP)—Secretary of State George C. Marshall is at his Pinehurst home, Liscombe Lodge, where he will rest for an indefinite time. Secretary and Mrs. Marshall arrived here yesterday from Washington. Marshall underwent a kidney operation at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington three weeks ago. Hospital physicians said there the secretary is scheduled to undergo a long period of recuperation.

Work on Atomic Power To Operate Navy Ships

Pittsburgh, Dec. 29 (AP)—The Westinghouse Electric Corporation today undertook a government commission to build the world's first atomic power unit for transportation purposes.
Primary goal of the project, assigned by the Atomic Energy Commission, will be the development of a power plant for the propulsion of U. S. navy ships by means of a nuclear reactor—atomic furnace with a function quite similar to ship's fireboxes that consume coal or oil.
The completion date, however, is a matter of conjecture—"may be two years, or it might be five or six."
